

Visitor Card Request

Deadline March 30, 2015

Exhibitors may invite eligible visitors* to attend your 2015 NAMA OneShow<sup>SM</sup> without a registration fee, by fully completing the request form attached. NAMA will review each request and send the visitor's card and instructions for redeeming it at the Expo directly to each of the approved recipients. We will include that the pass is courtesy of your company and send you a copy of the notification letter. We will contact you directly if any of your requests are not approved.

Visitor cards can only be sent to eligible visitors: advertising/public relations agency reps, architects, bankers, security analysts, educators, government officials, hospital administrators and public health officials.

Ineligible for visitor's cards: employees or investors in your company, non-member operators, brokers, distributors, machine manufacturers or suppliers.

Contact us at 312-346-0370 if you are unsure of the eligibility rules.

Please Type or Print the information for each visitor you wish to invite. Use an extra sheet if necessary.

Visitor's cards for all approved requests will be emailed directly to the eligible visitor courtesy of your company.

Please complete the above form and return to NAMA for review. The deadline is March 30, 2015. Approved visitors will have their letter exchangeable for badges at the Expo no later than April 13, 2015.

Your visitors must present their letter and proper identification (business card or ID card) on-site at the Registration Counter to obtain a badge.

Please make sure that all VIP's in your company are consulted when preparing your visitor list to insure that all your key visitors are invited.
