In reviewing the table of contents and noting all the different vendor and service forms provided, you will have the ability to download any of them with ease. Everything you might need to successfully prepare, equip and outfit your booth(s) or suite(s) for the upcoming CinemaCon 2026, to be held on April 14 – 15, 2026 (trade show dates) in Las Vegas is available at the push of a button.

From a management standpoint, a lot of hard work and planning go into producing a successful trade show. Likewise, from your end, that of the trade show exhibitor, it is that same degree of advance preparation that will ensure your experience is a good, productive and successful one. As it concerns your trade show experience, please note the following IMPORTANT highlights and recommendations:

We URGE you to re-read the memo previously sent out addressing plans for the 2026 CinemaCon Trade Show. One point that is worth repeating is that we highly recommend all exhibitors to pre-ship their material to the GES warehouse as it will be this material that will be first loaded onto the respective trade show floors. As noted, CinemaCon has negotiated very competitive material handling rates for pre-shipping of materials “in advance” to the GES warehouse.

It is our hope and goal that each exhibiting company will be mindful and give thought to those names submitted for guest passes so that they are truly representative of those clients you feel are most deserving of them. NOTE: Guest badges are intended for your customers in Exhibition that are not registered to attend CinemaCon. They are not intended for friends or colleagues who should otherwise pay the full trade show attendee rate.

All trade show companies should adhere to industry standard booth display regulations. We ask you fully review the guidelines located in the exhibitor's manual. If you are designing/building a custom booth, you must submit plans to Jennifer Maness (jmaness@ges.com) for approval.

If you should have any questions regarding the CinemaCon Trade Show, exposition policies, contractors, the size, layout or design of your booth including location, height restrictions or anything else of that nature, please feel free to contact us. As noted earlier on, we are committed to your success at the CinemaCon 2026 Trade Show. While there are exceptions to every rule, those exceptions are for Show Management to make.
