Visitors to the U.S. from visa-waiver countries will be required to register online and to be screened and authorized for entry. The new Electronic System for Travel Authorization (ESTA) was ordered by the Department of Homeland Security to identify visitors who might be a threat. Authorization is good for two years or until one's current passport expires. delegation. Locate your nearest embassy or consulate at <http://www.usembassy.gov/>.

- ❑ Be sure to complete all official documents. Answer all questions completely. Do not use 'n/a', 'not applicable', on your forms. If the answer is in the negative, use 'no', 'nil', or 'none.'
- ❑ Show proof of 'strong ties' that bind you to your country of residence. The Consular Officers conducting interviews look for proof that you will return to your country. Evidence of 'strong ties' includes proof of business ownership or employment, social and family relationships.
- ❑ If you have traveled to the U.S. previously, provide documentation demonstrating you returned to your country on time (airline boarding pass for example). Show proof that you returned within the timeframe you stated. For example, use an airline ticket stub/boarding pass that shows your return flight or meeting materials that show you attended a business conference.
- ❑ With your application, include any materials SEMICON West may have sent you. Include with your application any printed conference materials, official booth confirmation letter, etc. you receive from Show Management to prove the show is legitimate business event. As part of the visa interview, quick inkless fingerprint scans should be expected. Some visa applications require additional administrative processing, which requires some additional time. Applicants are advised when they apply.

Getting a visa is easy if you are prepared. Interviews typically last no more than 5 minutes, and the questions are related to confirming your travel plans and ties to your home country.
