

PRIMARY FORM – DUE BY 8/13/13

Exhibiting Company		Booth Number
On-Site Contact		Work Phone
Street Address		Cell Phone
City, State, Zip		Email Address

By order of the Dallas County Fire Department and the Hyatt Hotel, equipment used for the cooking and warming of food product(s), which employs one or more of the following heating methods, has been strictly prohibited.

- Any Hood Ventilation Required Equipment
- You are able to use a Fry Daddy should you wish to display fried foods but you must have the appropriate fire extinguisher in your booth for this device.

Please answer one of the following:

1. My company will be utilizing or displaying cooking and/or warming equipment to prepare food product. Yes No
2. My company will have the hotel prepare our food product. Yes No
3. My company will not be serving prepared food product. Yes No
4. My company will be shipping cold/frozen product to the Hotel. Yes No
5. My company will be shipping dry product to the Hotel. Yes No

If you answered, "Yes" to question number one, you must complete the following:

Food product(s) that will be prepared in my company's booth:

Equipment used to prepare food product:

Equipment electrical requirements:

Method in which the equipment heats food:

In case of fire, does equipment have a self-extinguishing system? Yes No

If yes, please describe:
