

Registration:

The School Nutrition Association has planned an outstanding series of education sessions and General Sessions. We encourage you to attend these sessions and learn more about the Child Nutrition Industry. Each company receives five (5) complimentary badges per 10x10 booth space purchased.

Once your company goes over their badge allotment, there is a $100 fee for additional badges. No badges, above your allotment will be processed without payment. Online Registration allows you to make changes and additions to your badge order up until the time the site closes on Thursday, June 30. After June 30, all registration must be processed on-site and the cost for additional badges increases to $125 per badge. (Badges will not be mailed, but available for pick up on-site at the registration desk at the Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center).

All individual exhibitors have the opportunity to attend the three general sessions & educational sessions. The educational program (not including pre conference sessions) is offered to you at no cost. You can obtain information regarding the educational sessions on the ANC2016 Conference Website:

Food Service Professionals cannot register as an Exhibitor. If your organization is sponsoring a Food Service Professional, please complete the Foodservice Attendee Registration form. If a foodservice professional is registered with a company badge, the foodservice attendee will not receive CEUs or tickets to special events.

Housing: This year, there is a brand-new procedure requiring registration for ANC16 San Antonio, before housing will be in effect. All Exhibitors must register for badges before they will be provided access to the SNA housing system and the discounted rates at the official ANC 2016 hotels. This change in procedure is designed to help the Association better control the inventory of available rooms, ensuring that a greater number of exhibitors will have the opportunity to book their first-choice hotels on their preferred dates and still receive SNA's discounted rates.
