

Exhibitor Online Profile

In 400 characters or less, please provide a description of what your company will be featuring in your booth. The company profile will be published in the pre-convention issue of AWCI's Construction Dimensions magazine and in the on-site program guide, so please keep the information in your profile current. The profile will also remain online for up to two months after the show closes.

The instructions are easy:

- Go to the following site – https://s15.a2zinc.net/clients/awci/intex22/Public/e_Login.aspx?FromPage=e_ExhibitorConsole.
- Enter your password. If you do not remember your password, enter your email address and hit "email my login info" and your password will be sent to you.
- Select "edit both info".
- Update all info on the page. The "print profile: section is what will be printed in the program guide along with your contact information provided.
- Click "save" at the bottom when you are done.
- Your profile will be published online as soon as you hit save. Show Management reserves the right to edit the online and print profiles.
