Food Sampling

It is the responsibility of each exhibitor to obtain a food permit and abide by the rules and requirements of the local Consumer Health Division of Dallas County when sampling any type of food, beverage, or product for consumption. Please refer to the Open Sampling section of the Exhibitor Service kit to obtain Temporary Food Permit documents and review regulations.

Freight/ Drayage

GES is the official designated freight handling company for the World Trade Center, Trade Mart and Market Hall. GES has full control over freight movement, freight docks and elevators for Trade show freight. Ship early to avoid problems and potential delays that will cost you money. Shipments must be sent with freight charges PREPAID. COD shipments will not be accepted and turned away. Loose, unpalletized, or improperly packaged materials will not be accepted.

Hazardous Work Areas

During move-in and move-out, exhibit halls and loading dock areas are considered HAZARDOUS WORK AREAS. Safety is the primary concern in hazardous work areas. Only authorized contractors and exhibitors carrying insurance liability coverage should be present on the show floor. No animals.

Illegal Substances

Use or possession of illegal or controlled substances of any kind is prohibited. Violators will be prosecuted.

Insurance/ Liability

The Dallas Market Center does not provide insurance to cover exhibitor activities at the Dallas Market Center and their contractors assume no liability or responsibility for loss by any exhibitor by theft, fire, breakage, or any other reason.

Exhibiting companies are required to carry insurance policies, at their own expense, covering liability insurance, property insurance and worker's compensation expense and must comply with state laws.

Coverage should include also include transportation of freight, booth display materials, and include the full duration of the show from Move-in to Move-out.

Coverage may be obtained by adding a rider to your current policy. If you need assistance acquiring exhibitor insurance, please connect with Rainprotection, our official show insurance provider at 800-528-7975 or sales@rainprotection.net.

Internet/Wi-Fi Services

Secure Wi-Fi is available in Temp trade show floors. Network and password information will be distributed at market. If exhibitors encounter issues connecting to Wi-Fi, please contact the Tenant Connectivity Help Desk at 214.760.2826 or tenanths@dallasmarketcenter.com. DMC cautions against entering credit card info by hand using a keyboard, touchpad, or unencrypted card reader vs being swiped/inserted with a secure credit card reader/machine. For security purposes, it is suggested that exhibitors use a point of sale (POS) system approved by a bank or processor to physically scan and encrypt the credit card transaction.

Late Installation

If installation of any crated exhibit has not started by 4:00PM on the last day of move-in and no arrangements for set-up have been made, then Show Management may erect the exhibit and the Exhibitor will be billed and must agree to pay for all charges incurred. Show Management shall not be liable for damages that may occur during this exhibit set-up. In the event Show Management arranges to erect exhibit, payment of services must be paid in full before freight can be removed from the show.

Lost and Found

Lost and found is in the Protective Services office located on the first floor of the World Trade Center, Suite 113 or call 214-655-6166.

Music, Audio-Demonstrations, Noise

If your product(s) and/or product demonstration produces sound that may be disruptive to neighboring exhibitors, we ask that you be always mindful of volume. Should Show Management receive complaint(s) regarding the noise level coming from your booth, you will be required to lower the volume and possibly eliminate the activity all together.

Music Licensing

It is the responsibility of exhibitor to pay all royalties, license fees, or other charges due to any person or entity for any music or other entertainment played within the exhibitor's contracted space. Exhibitors must obtain music performance rights licenses through ASCAP and or BMI (and any other necessary performing rights associations) if exhibitor intends to use copyrighted music.

The performance or use of live or mechanically-produced music that is under copyright of another organization, such as the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, (collectively "Organizations") is strictly prohibited, unless you can provide us written evidence either (a) that any required licensing fees have been previously paid to the appropriate Organizations to cover the period of the Show; (b) that you have express permission from the copyright owner to perform the music at the Show; or (c) that you, in fact, are the owner of the copyright. This may be accomplished by providing us with a copy of an agreement with the appropriate Organizations with respect to such licensing fees, a copy of an agreement with the copyright owner granting you permission to perform such music, or written representation that you are the copyright owner of the music to be used. You should note that express permission from the copyright owner relating to reproduction and/ or distribution rights, does not include performance rights; hence the copyright authorization that you provide us must specifically reference performance rights. Moreover, U.S. copyright laws contain no exemption allowing you to perform such music at a trade show for purposes of promoting sales of that music. Exhibitor must provide the above-mentioned requested evidence prior to the Show.

Open Flame Policy

Open flames, propane or other bottled gas are not allowed in DMC buildings except those approved by the Fire Marshal of Dallas Fire Department. Please see the Open Flame Fire Permit located in the exhibitor Service kit for consideration. Fees apply.

Rigging/Hanging

All items to be suspended from exhibit hall ceilings, including signs, displays, light and sound equipment, etc., must be approved in advance by Show Management and installed by GES or approved EAC. Rigging of cable and other hanging devices on or near ceiling electrical buss ducts and conduits is strictly prohibited. Any approved ceiling equipment, material and rigging must be removed immediately upon close of the show.

Security

Although show management provides a level of protection, exhibitors and their staff are responsible for securing their personal valuables, booth fixtures, and product samples. Uniformed security will be on duty from the beginning of move-in through the completion of move-out; however, Show Management cannot accept responsibility for loss or damage. Exhibitors are expected to carry liability insurance coverage for exhibit materials and valuables.

Protective Services' office is located at WTC, Suite 113. To report an emergency, please call 214-655- 6166.

Sales Policy

The Dallas Men's Show is primarily wholesale order writing only Market. No direct Cash & Carry /Retail selling should be conducted. Buyers may place orders with exhibitors for products/services at the shows, but the product or service must be delivered after the close of the Market. If you plan to sell your entire exhibit, merchandise, or material from your booth, please plan for delivery at the loading dock and maintain a full and active booth until the close of the show.

Signage

All signage must be professionally prepared and properly finished. Handwritten or non-professional signs are not allowed on the show floor and will be removed at the discretion of Show Management. Pop-up signs and signs promoting pricing are strongly discouraged. Any means of attachment must be nondestructive to the structure. Dallas Market Center permanent graphics, signs or displays may not be visibly blocked in any manner, covered with temporary signs, or repositioned. No drilling of the structure is allowed without specific

Smoking

Smoking is not permitted in any part of the building. Designated smoking areas are located outside the building.

Solicitation

Only officially contracted exhibitors are permitted to promote their products, services, or company at the Market. All company promotion and sampling must occur within the confines of the contracted booth space. This includes approaching buyers in neighboring booths to sell product or leaving and/or distributing product information in public space or bathrooms. Exhibitors violating this policy could jeopardize future booth location or complete show removal forfeiting all booth fees.

Space Abandonment

All exhibitors should occupy their booth space by 4:00PM on the last day of move-in. Failure to show could result in resale or reassignment of booth space by Show Management without obligation of refund.
