We are pleased to announce that our recent Buying Events set records in all metrics we utilize to gauge success, including sales and attendance. We cannot allow ourselves to become complacent with simply setting new records. We are committed to continuously reviewing and refining our procedures after every dealer market with the goal to find incremental improvements to enhance the exhibitor process and certainly the overall dealer experience while attending an Orgill market.

We value your efforts to make us better and willingness to assist in those incremental improvements. Please take the time to review your exhibitor kit thoroughly to familiarize yourself with recent changes in our set up process.

If you have questions concerning your booth number, please contact your merchandise manager at 901-754-8850 or visit Orgill.com. For questions regarding the Dealer Market or information in this packet, please contact Mandi Etier at metier@orgill.com or Tammy New at tnew@orgill.com.

We look forward to seeing you in Orlando.

Sincerely,
Tammy New
