

2013 FOOD & PRODUCT DONATION

NRA SHOW 2013

May 18-21, 2013 | McCormick Place | Chicago, IL USA

Arrangements have been made to have unused food and product picked up by the Greater Chicago Food Depository at the close of NRA Show 2013.

IF YOU WISH TO DONATE FOOD AND/OR PRODUCT, PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INSTRUCTIONS:

The NRA Show will have volunteers from the Greater Chicago Food Depository on the Show floor to answer questions and help you prepare unused food and/or product for donation.

Complete a product donation form distributed by the Food Depository volunteers on Tuesday, May 21. Return this form to the GES Servicenter. Remember to retain a copy for your records.

Bright orange "DONATION" stickers will be available for pick up at the GES Servicenter when you turn in your product donation form. NRA Floor Managers will also have a supply available to distribute.

(SAMPLE OF DONATION LABEL)

At the close of the Show, label the product to be donated with the bright orange stickers provided. Keep all product labeled for donation to Greater Chicago Food Depository within the confines of your booth space for pick up by GES personnel.

DID YOU KNOW?

- In 2012, the Greater Chicago Food Depository collected from NRA Show over 55,000 pounds of top quality food and product for hungry children, women and men which is more than 41,000 meals.
- The food and product collected is distributed to 650 member agencies including pantries, soup kitchens, shelters, child care facilities and senior living facilities. 37% of the people served are children 17 years of age or younger, and 32% of households served are families with one or more working adults.
- Last year, the Food Depository distributed over 64 million pounds of food which is equivalent to 132,000 meals a day.
