

ConferenceDirect®

The official housing provider for NRA 2023

Your group of hotel rooms are in safe hands with our dedicated professionals

With ConferenceDirect event housing services team, you receive:

- » An easy booking process
- » Top-quality customer service
- » Personal attention to your group needs

What does this mean to you as a valued exhibitor of the NRA ANNUAL MEETINGS & EXHIBITS?

We monitor hotel rates to guarantee you are getting the best rate

You have an assigned dedicated housing coordinator to manage your group block

We assist with reservation changes up to cut-off

You are protected if you have a reservation in an oversold hotel

If your hotel and dates are not immediately confirmable, wait listing is available

Beware of Pirates

There are unofficial housing companies that will reach out to you, unsolicited and will offer you a better deal. They are not legitimate.

Here's how other exhibitors have suffered this experience:

- » Charged more than they were quoted
- » Did not receive a refund when requested
- » Were informed they had no reservation upon arrival
- » No answer to their customer service calls

Always check for the seal of approval

Staying at an official NRA hotel allows us to negotiate the best rates in the cities in which we meet and helps fund your NRA ANNUAL MEETINGS & EXHIBITS experience.
