

A UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY TO REACH YOUR FUTURE HIRES! THURSDAY & FRIDAY, MARCH 23 & 24

It's not often that you get this many people in the same place, at the same time, who are so exceptionally qualified to help your business grow! Take advantage of this unique opportunity to recruit your next employee directly from the market your staff needs to connect with and understand: academic libraries and librarians.

Meet interested job seekers at the Open House from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Friday, March 24. Your staff is invited to discuss various aspects of your company culture and community life—the things that make working for your organization unique—without necessarily talking about specific jobs.

Interview candidates right on site. If you've got an active position search at the time of the conference, use the facilities available in the ALA JobLIST Placement & Career Development Center to meet face-to-face. To do so, you need to have an active job ad on ALA JobLIST during the conference, and schedule your interview time with the Placement Center manager.

Visit the ACRL 2017 site as the conference nears for more information, or contact ALA JobLIST Placement & Career Development Center manager Beatrice Calvin at bcalvin@ala.org, (800) 545-2433 ext. 4280.
