Frome

One open side

Surround your visitors in your brand experience with this option specially designed for spaces with a single opening from the aisle.

Great for hosting meetings, VIP guests and even seminars and small presentations.

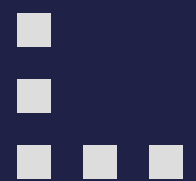

Nile

One open side

Need some extra storage space?

This package option gives you a wrap-around brand experience with the practical benefits of somewhere to store your belongings out-of-sight.

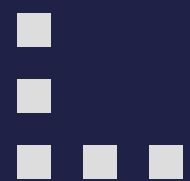

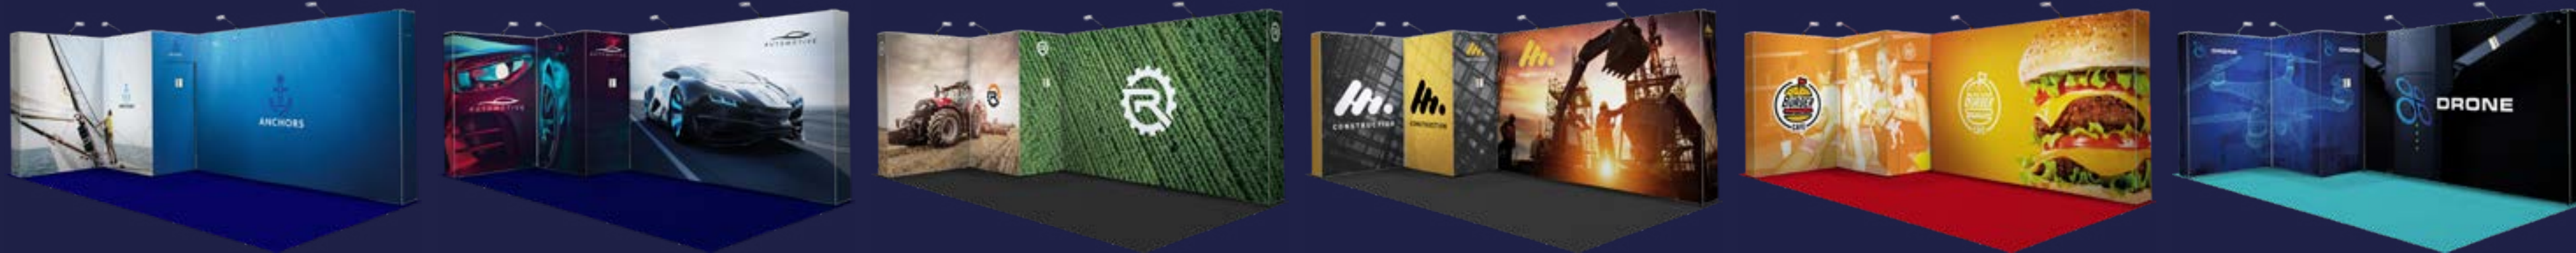

Avon

Two open sides

A great space for a variety of exhibiting needs, with a storage area for keeping extras out of sight.

This space is incredibly versatile, great for meeting zones, product launches and plenty of wall graphic space for getting your brand noticed.

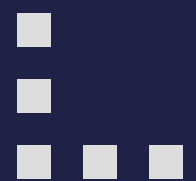

Clyde

Two open sides

Simple yet effective, this option gives you plenty of space to tell your brand story through graphics and equal opportunity to get the most out of your floor space.

This style of space is great for floor-based product displays, meeting zones and demonstration areas.

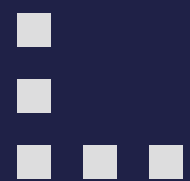

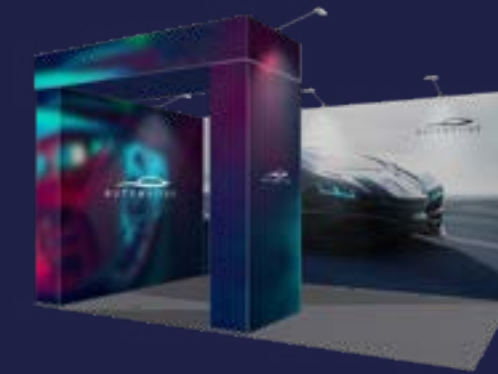

Hudson

Two open sides

Make a statement with your key brand messaging with this arch-tower combination space.

Great for meeting and product launch activations, the layout of this option allows you to easily divide the space and create the areas that will work for you.

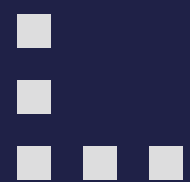

Inari

Two open sides

This option includes a storage area for keeping your extras out of sight, plus a slightly protruding feature wall to help frame your key messaging.

Ask us about our back-lighting options to add a little extra power to your graphics.

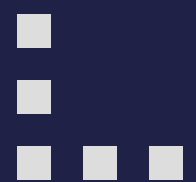

Ohio

Two open sides

This 2 open side design, offers a point of difference with the flat corner, allowing maximum floorspace with options for a lightbox to make sure you stand out.

Boyne

Three open sides

In addition to the huge amount of branding space on the back wall, this option includes an angled feature wall for grabbing extra attention that also doubles up as a storage area.

This option is popular for creating meeting spaces and drawing attention to new product or service offerings.

Danube

Three open sides

This package is designed for making a statement while remaining pragmatic with its storage area. The elevated graphic space allows you to extend your reach across the show floor - we can even illuminate it for you.

Popular uses include launching new messaging, maintaining a brand presence and hooking visitors for quick demonstrations.

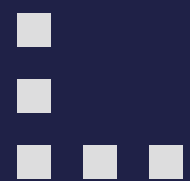

Elbe

Three open sides

This package is versatile and striking while maintaining easy access from all three sides.

With this package, you can make full use of your floor space while your artwork helps you hook visitors in off the aisle.

Mekong

Three open sides

Similar to the Elbe package, this option also includes a feature wall that doubles up as a storage space.

Use it to push any key messages, feature a big hero graphic or mount a TV for prime viewing space.

Garda

Three open sides

The archway on this space offers something a little more unique to steal attention away from your competitors.

Featuring elevated graphics, the archway can also be a good place to mount a small TV for that extra bit of “wow”.

Klondike

Island stand

The tower structure that forms this package is perfect for larger spaces. It gives you a focal point for your messaging and lots of space to move around the outside for you and your guests.

Add some lounge furniture to create comfortable meeting spaces, they go together well with this type of space.

Loire

Island stand

Two walls, an archway and four open sides gives you 360° brand exposure. You can brand the inside and outside of both walls and the off-set layout means your messaging remains in view.

This layout helps you get a lot of your floor space back to use for meetings, displays or demonstrations. The choice is entirely yours and the options are endless.
